the successful tenderer will be expected to supply such additional quantities at the rates accepted by the Committee. The whole quantities of the articles will be drawn within the 30th June 1926.

7. No claim for compensation on account of rise in prices due to whatsoever causes will be entertained during the contract period.

8. The successful tenderer should be prepared to supply to the indenting officers to be intimated to him in due course, such quantities of the article as may be required by them from time to time, such indents being complied with within a week from their date of receipt.

9. Final acceptance of the tender will rest with the Stores Purchase Committee, who do not bind themselves to accept the lowest or any tender or to assign any reason whatever for the rejection of any tender.

10. The name of the successful tenderer will be notified in due course and he will be required to deposit, as security for the due fulfilment of the contract, a sum equal to 10 per cent of the value of the order and to execute an agreement within fifteen days from the date of acceptance of the tender undertaking to abide by the conditions of the contract and also to satisfactorily complete the contract for the supplies required.

11. The cotton waste to be so supplied should be strictly according to the accepted samples.

12. The earnest money deposited with the tender will be forfeited to Government, if the tenderer whose tender is accepted, fails to execute the necessary agreement and to furnish the security as abovementioned or if the tenderer withdraws his tender before the acceptance or otherwise is communicated to him. The earnest money on rejected tenders will be returned.

13. Should the successful tenderer fail to comply with any of the conditions stipulated in the contract let to him, his contract shall forthwith be cancelled and the security deposit forfeited to Government. Further, in the event of the successful tenderer failing to fulfil his contract within the time specified, the Stores Purchase Committee reserve the right to purchase against him in the open market at his risk and expense and claim damages, the measure of which will be the market price on the date of purchase less contract price.

14. In the case of dispute as to whether the supply of articles are similar to those of the samples deposited and generally as regards the satisfactory performance of the contract, the decision of the Stores Purchase Committee shall be final and binding on the successful tenderer.

15. In case of materials to be supplied to the Mysore Railways, Railway Material Certificates will be issued for carriages of stores from place of business of the tenderers to Mysore to enable them to book the articles at concession rates, the benefit of the difference between the public tariff and Railway Material concessional rates being given to the Railway Department.
